Chennai, October 15th 2010

Dear Sir/Madam,

Warm Regards from Mother Teresa Charitable Trust. It gives me great pleasure to present this news letter. I am glad to inform you that the activities of Mother Teresa Forum in the last month was very much encouraging and lot of new members are enrolling from various states of India, and other nations of the world.

The office bearers of Mother Teresa Forum and the Trustees had an extensive tour in four districts of Tamil Nadu on 2nd October and 3rd October 2010. On 2nd October 11.00 AM, the district office bearers, zonal and village committee members assembled in Krishnagiri in the MTF office. More than 300 volunteers attended. In the evening at 5 PM in Namakkal district. Office bearers met at Paramathivelur in a marriage hall. Lot of volunteers, blood donors, association team, general public joined with MTF.

Next day i.e. on 3rd October at 10 AM the meeting was held at Salem. Lot of suggestions has been given. In the evening the meeting held at Dharmapuri at Gouri Spinning mill complex. Overall, lot of enthusiastic volunteers evinced interest to take the assignment to carry forward the message of Mother Teresa to the nook and corner of each district. You are aware that, each district in Tamil

Nadu has been assigned a target of 10000 members, but the district president of Krishnagiri assured 25000 members before Dec. 31st this year.

Further we are receiving over whelming response from volunteers of nations. In India, we receive more members from Andra Pradesh State through online registration.

You were aware that we have approached several State Govt. to celebrate Mother Teresa Centenary in their respective states. Several states have come forward to celebrate the centenary. The Tamil Nadu Govt, is organizing the function in the first week of December as an Official function.

Similarly, the Puduchery Govt. formally announced a celebration committee for the centenary, functions.

We solicit you also to approach your respective State Govt. to have the function in your States also.

Yours Sincerely,

G.K. Dhas
Managing Trustee
