Chennai, Dec.2010

We are extremely happy to be with you with the Newsletter for the month of December. Our recent activities, implementations and our visions are all being widely appreciated and accepted by all folks of men. This appreciation gives us inspiration and clarity in all the works we do.

Recently I had an opportunity to participate in the "Christmas celebration" hosted at Delhi by the Members of Parliament. All folks of people participated in this celebrations irrespective of religion. Our Prime Minister along with his cabinet members participated in the celebrations, blessed the occasion and the Christmas Eve.

I had an opportunity to share few words about MTF to few participants in this celebration and they happily agreed to join us and work together.

Shri. Josuah Jena, a social activist from Orissa has come forward to form committees in the state of Orissa and lead the team. Similarly Shri. Shantha Bhusan will lead the team of Nellore district, Andhra Pradesh. We expect, MTF will quickly spread wings in the state of Andhra Pradesh under his good guidance.

A renoward Educationalists,
Ex.Central Govt. Secretary,
Pro.Chancellor, Nooral Islam Deemed

University and social Activists Shri. Dr.Muthu Nayagam and Ex. Bangalore city Police Commissioner, now Central Govt. Minorities Commission Vice Chairman Shri.Sankaliana,IPS, (Rtd) Ex.M.P have accepted to be MTF, Governing Board Members and work jointly with us. The presence of these personalities will definitely encourage and motivate us in all aspects.

We have targeted to enroll 10,000 members in each district in Tamil Nadu and 10,000 in other State. District/State presidents The office bearers are requested to take necessary action to attain the given target.

A meeting of all the district Presidents, Gen. Secretaries, National Committee members, State office bearers and special invitees are called for on 18th December 10.00 am at Chennai in to chart out programmes for the state level Mother Teresa Centenary celebration to be held in the first week of February 2011 at Chennai. We see a new wave in enrolment of new members to our MTF throughout India Hither to lot of members enroll themselves as member through our website.

Yours Sincerely,
