Chennai, November 15th 2010

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greeting from Nobel Laureate Mother Teresa Charitable Trust.

MTCT is extremely happy to be with you and share the events for the month of November. MTF is spreading wings widely in the state of Uttar Pradesh under the good guidance of Mr. Alok Srivastava, an educationalist. They have formed committees in four districts of UP and are arranging for separate office premises to be opened in three districts where the monthly committee meetings will be undertaken regularly.

Similarly, in the state of Jharkand, membership drive is fast activated under the leadership of Shri. Manik Dutta, its President.

Our country's capital New Delhi will have an active committee shortly under the co-ordination of our National Committee General Secretary Mr. Raja Singh.

MTF, Tamil Nadu is also actively registering members. Few districts in Tamil Nadu, Such as Karur, Villupuram which were left out without committees have recently formed good teams and presidents have been nominated.

Govt. of India, Ministry of Food Processing Industries jointly with Nobel Laureate Mother Teresa Charitable is conducting Entrepreneurship

Development Programmes at Madurai and Kancheepuram from 8.11.2010 (Monday) and 20.11.2010 (Monday) respectively. The training will be a six weeks long program. The training is a free program and youth who wish to take up small scale business in food related products may join us and make use of the training. MTF volunteers will be given priority.

To mark the centenary celebrations of Mother Teresa, Govt. of Tamil Nadu has named the Self Help Groups Traders Mall at Chennai after the Great Mother. The centenary functions will also be hosted as a Govt. function.

MTF volunteers of each districts in Tamil Nadu will have to organize functions individually in your concern districts to mark the centenary of Mother Teresa. You are requested to kindly plan previously for the functions.

The MTF, State Committee, has planed to host a grand function in Chennai city in the third week of January. The concerned office bearers are requested to work on it as early as possible.
