

Subject: Urgent Appeal for Life-Saving Treatment: My Son Needs Your Help-reg.

Dear Esteemed NGO,

I am writing to you today with a desperate and humble plea from the deepest part of a father's heart. My name is G. Nagaraju, and I serve as a dedicated Library Assistant drawing 32,000/- per month at Kaveri University (KU) in Gowraram, Telangana. My beloved 10 month-old son is battling a severe heart condition, and his young life depends on immediate, extensive medical treatment.

The estimated cost for this critical, life-saving procedure is a staggering ₹25 lakhs as per the estimates given by the doctors at ANKURA Hospitals, Kukatpally. For my family, this amount is simply insurmountable. We come from a poor background, and my modest income as an Library Assistant is our sole source of support. We have no other income, no savings, and no financial safety net to cover such an enormous expense.

Watching my son suffer, knowing that the treatment he desperately needs is out of my reach, is an agony no parent should ever endure. My heart breaks with every labored breath he takes, and I am reaching out to you, hoping that your compassion and commitment to social welfare can offer us a lifeline.

Your organization's support, particularly through your Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) funds, would be a true miracle for my son and my family. Every rupee contributed would directly help fund his surgery and aftercare, giving him a chance at a healthy future he so richly deserves.

Time is of the essence. My son's condition requires urgent intervention. I can provide all necessary medical documents and details upon request.

Thank you for considering my heartfelt appeal. Your generosity and swift response could truly save my son's life.

Sincerely,

G. Nagaraju, (+91 77994 99191)
